Content

To keep track of what's happening in your research world, turn to Scopus. Across all research fields—science, mathematics, engineering, technology, health and medicine, social sciences, and arts and humanities—Scopus delivers a broad overview of global, interdisciplinary scientific information that researchers, teachers and students need to stay informed.

- > Content Coverage Guide
- > Book Title List
- > Scopus Source List
- > Scopus Discontinued Sources List

Comprehensive: Scopus has the largest breadth and depth when compared to any other A&I database in the world. Timely updates from thousands of peer-reviewed journals, preliminary findings from millions of conference papers, and the thorough analysis in an expanding collection of books ensure you have the most up-to-date and highest quality interdisciplinary content available. Content indexed in Scopus is coming from 5,000 publishers from around the world.

Frequently updated: Never miss out on what's new in your field. Scopus is the only leading database that is updated daily rather than just weekly.

Unbiased: You can rely on our independent and expert content selection & advisory board \(CSAB\) who use strict criteria to vet the sources that Scopus includes. Learn more about our current board and content selection methods.

2. Click on Scopus Source List
